The Peninsula Hotel is sumptuous inside and out.

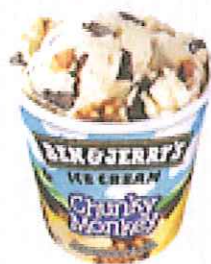

The Peninsula Beverly Hills, Los Angeles

A pinnacle of five-star luxury, the Peninsula Hotel is located in the heart of one of the most exclusive areas of Beverly Hills. It has 196 grandly designed rooms, each decorated in renaissance style with an array of modern luxuries, including satellite TV, wireless internet and an executive work desk. After a day spent shopping on Rodeo Drive or people-watching on Venice Beach, relax and dine at the iconic rooftop garden which enjoys unobstructed view of Los Angeles. To wash away the city grime, head to the in-house spa for some out-of-this-world pampering. In particular, the Organic Oxygen Facial, which uses oxygen mist to promote cellular respiration, is an experience not to be missed. +1 310 551 2888, peninsula.com.

Loving ... the teensy bars that are finally starting to edge open their doors thanks to New South Wales' new(ish) relaxed licensing laws. Our favourite? Small Bar on 48 Erskine St, Sydney, 02 9279 0782, smallbar.net.au.
