WHAT'S NOW! November

Our pick of the month's hottest events & coolest releases

HART AND SOUL

Gelato hues belie the sombre themes of displacement in Eleanor Hart's exhibition 1938/The Past/The Present.

November 5-28 at Mars Gallery,
418 Bay St, Port Melbourne;
03-96818425

Eleanor Hart's
Memory of a Garden

SHOOTING STARS PHOTOGRAPHER DOUGLAS KIRKLAND'S EXHIBITION FABULOUS PEOPLE WITH FABULOUS LIVES FEATURES STARS INCLUDING MARILYN MONROE (LEFT). AT WESLEY QUARTER, 93 WILLIAM ST, PERTH, FROM OCTOBER 28; 08-9424 9900.

SUGAR RUSH

Give in to your sweet tooth with a trio of delectable new offerings: iconic US ice-cream company Ben & Jerry's has arrived in Oz; as has Les Anis de Flavigny's adorable French bonbons; plus Ferrero's dark-chocolate Rondnoir balls.

Les Anis de Flavigny Violette bonbons (right), $6.95; 03-9078 3747.

GILDED LILY

Proving her abilities extend beyond model-turned-actress cliché, British beauty Lily Cole (left) shines with the late Heath Ledger in his final film, The Imaginarium of Doctor Parnassus (out October 29).

TUNE IN

Some new sounds for your iPod: soulful singer Norah Jones returns with The Fall (EMD), which has an edgier feel than her previous albums. For faster sounds, try Neon Essential: Volume Two (Neon Records), a three-disc dance compilation mixed by top DJs, including girl-of-the-moment Ruby Rose.

Ganambarr uses traditional materials in her pieces.

ART ON YOUR SLEEVE

Featuring necklaces, bags and brooches, indigenous artist Mavis Ganambarr's new exhibition of wearable art is being staged by World Vision.

At Birrung Gallery, 134 William St, Sydney
from November 13; 02-9550 9964
